Intercontinental Porto

The five-star Inter-Continental lies in the heart of Porto's historic center and is the gem in the city's accommodation crown. As a converted monastery-cum-palace, the hotel exudes character, and when paired with the staff's diligent hospitality, it offers an outstanding all-round experience.

CITY ACTIVITY

Porto

Long regarded as Lisbon's quieter sibling, Portugal's second city is currently undergoing a magical moment of rejuvenation. The city's river banks are crowded with hip new bars and cool pavement restaurants. However the Portuguese love their old world ways too much to give them all up. So staying put are the city's cobbled streets and beautifully tiled churches, its lazy lunchtimes and touching friendliness. In short, what's on offer is the best of both worlds.

FEATURED COURSE

Estela Golf Club

A little-known seaside course of captivating views and memorable holes. It is pretty much as close to a links as you will see in mainland Europe. You will know by the time you've walked from the car park to the clubhouse and caught a glimpse of its landscape that you're going to enjoy Estela. ,

OPTIONAL ACTIVITY

The landscapes of the Douro Valley are a truly unique and breathtaking sight. Rolling green and golden hills, terraced vineyards clinging to the steep slopes leading down to a beautiful flowing river below.

ENJOY YOUR STAY

Solar do Castelo

The hotel sits within the walled complex of St. George's Castle, high above the city, on the site of the former Alca ova Palace. The 20 individually decorated rooms skilfully blend modern comforts with ancient artifacts and the walls, in Lisbon's traditional yellow, enclose a cobbled courtyard.

CITY ACTIVITY

---

Lisbon

Lisbon is not subtle with its charms. From the first tram ride up that cobbled hill, you will be seduced by glittering river views, some of the most majestic architecture in Europe and, er, washing lines crammed with colorful underwear. Drink with arty locals at hip new bars, sway to fado, the city's signature sound, and load your suitcase with retro souvenirs. For a capital city, they don't get much prettier, and it's outstandingly good value, too.

Oitavos Dunes GC

Golf Magazine's #1 in Portugal and #55 in the World, Oitavos Dunes peers down at the Atlantic Ocean at every turn. A 5 star private club, Oitavos Dunes is a lovely mix of woodland and links style holes. The setting of the course can be considered as unique in comparison with most other courses in Portugal. Located in the parklands of what was originally a 14th Century Monastery that has been very carefully restored. With its rippling mountains, dewy forests thick with ferns and lichen, exotic gardens and glittering palaces, Sintra is like a page torn from a fairy tale. Its UNESCO World Heritage-listed center, Sintra-Vila, is dotted with pastel-hued manors folded into luxuriant hills that roll down to the blue Atlantic.

ENJOY YOUR STAY

The serene Convento is hidden down a side street and comprises nine rooms over three floors around a central patio open to the blue skies. With peaceful interiors, cloaked in stillness, this is a place to retreat to. There is a swimming pool for the active, but otherwise this is a place to read and think, with no televisions to distract you.

Quinta do Lago has been at the forefront of international golf since it's creation. Today the three courses are among some of Europe's best and are the home to the Paul McGinley golf academy.
